

Indiana Association of Historians
Twenty-Third Annual Meeting
Earlham College and Indiana University East
Richmond, Indiana
February 28-March 1, 2003

The IAH gratefully acknowledges the support of Indiana University East and Earlham College and a generous subvention from the Indiana Magazine of History for this year's annual meeting.

Friday, February 28:

7:00 P.M. Wayne County Historical Museum, 1212 North A Street, Richmond

Business Meeting: David G. Vanderstel, President, Presiding

Program: Round Table Discussion on James H. Madison, A Lynching in the Heartland

Participants: James H. Madison, Indiana University, Bloomington

John L. Larson, Purdue University

Phyllis Boanes, Earlham College

Bill Munn, Marion High School

Richard Pierce, University of Notre Dame

Reception

Saturday, March 1

All sessions except the luncheon held in the Bolling Center on the Earlham College campus, 801 National Road West (US 40 West)

8:15-9:00 Atrium: Continental Breakfast

Round I: 9:00-10:30

Session 1: Bolling 208

Faculty/Student Research: Quakers and the Fine Arts

Presider: Thomas D. Hamm, Earlham College

Julia Prosser, Earlham College, "The Unlikely Art Critic: Earl Shinn, Jr. "

Kristin Fedders, Ailither McGill, and Maya Wright, Earlham

College, "Marcus Mote: Quaker and Artist"

Response: The Audience

Session 2: Bolling 201

Rhetoric and Morality: Using Rhetorical Analysis to Uncover Moral Agency

Presider: Michelle Mannering, Butler University

Andrea Robertson, Butler University, "Rhetoric and the Justification of Violence: Puritan Perceptions of Gender Roles and the Pequot War of 1637"

Mary Chalmers, Butler University, "Can Moral Citizens Be Made?"
Adolphe

Blanqui's Autobiography"

Krissy Warrenburg, Butler University, "Robert Kennedy and the Death of Martin Luther King, Jr.: A Moral Predicament Addressed"

Respondent: Raymond Haberski, Marian College

Session 3: Bolling 211

Moral Choices in History

Presider: Joanne E. Passet, Indiana University East

John R. McKivigan, IUPUI, "Peaceful Means vs. Violent Realities:
American Abolitionist Tactics"

Laura E. C. Bergstrom, Indiana State University, "Hautian Houses of Ill Fame: A Small Midwestern City's Confrontation with Vice"

Bruce Bigelow, Butler University, "Who Voted for Lincoln? The Voting
Behavior of Ethnoreligious Groups in Indiana in the Presidential Elections of 1860 and 1864"

Respondent: Stephen Cox, Indiana Historical Society

Poster Session: 10:30-11:00, Richmond Room, ground floor, Bolling Center

Round II: 11:00-12:15

Session 1: Bolling 201

Round Table Discussion: Developing Exhibits at the Indiana
State Museum

Moderator: Dale Ogden, Chief Curator of Natural History, ISM

James E. May, Deputy Director of Collections and Interpretation, ISM

Ron Richards, Chief Curator of Natural History, ISM

Peggy Fisherkiller, Curator of Geology, ISM

Alicia Stewart, Programs Coordinator, ISM

Dale Ogden

Reponse: The Audience

Session 2: Bolling 208

Indiana Committee on History Education: The Marion Community History Project

Presented by Bill Munn, Marion High School, with updates on the work
ICHE by committee members

Response: The Audience

Session 3: Bolling 211

Challenges to Historians Participating in International Academic Exchanges: Political, Economic, Ethical Questions

Moderator: Rebecca Shoemaker, Indiana State University

William B. Pickett, Rose Human Institute of Technology

F. Robert Hunter, Indiana State University

Charles Reafsnyder, Indiana University, Bloomington

Response: The Audience

Lunch: 12:30-2:15

Comstock Room, Runyan Center

Presiding: David G. Vanderstel and Katherine Tinsley

Welcome: Bob Southard, Associate Academic Dean and Professor of History, Earlham College

Presentation of Governor's Award for Excellence in the Teaching of History to Trudy A. Nelson, Wea Ridge Elementary School, Lafayette

Taylor Lectuer: William V. Trollinger, University of Dayton, "Moral Choices and Moral Judgments: The Dayton Ku Klux Klan and the Campaign against Catholics in the 1920s"

Round III: 2:30-4:00

Session 1: Bolling 201

War and Human Rights

Presider: Nancy Hagedorn, Indiana State University

Eleanor L. Turk, Indiana University East, "The Price of Conscience: Swiss Banks and the Holocaust"

Kathleen A. Tobin, Purdue University Calumet, "Of Independence and Human Rights: Catholicism and the Cuban Constitution, 1895-1905"

Kevin Smith, Ball State University, "Democratic Idealism, the Constitution, and Congressional Declaration of War: The Failure of the Ludlow Amendment, 1938"

Respondent: David M. Anderson, University of Indianapolis

Session 2: Bolling 208

Women: Visible and Invisible in History

Presider: Marianne Wokeck, IUPUI

Joanne E. Passet, Indiana University East, "No Entangling Alliances:

Juliet H. Severance and the Politicization of a Nineteenth-Century Liberal"

Leigh Fought, IUPUI, "Research at the Frederick Douglass Papers: Frederick Douglass's Sister"

Jill Chambers, Indiana Women's History Archives, "Amanda Way: An Indiana Reformer"

Response: Barbara Steinson, DePauw University

Session 3: Bolling 211

Nineteenth-Century Indiana

Presider: David Vanderstel, National Council on Public History

Jeff Kollath, Indiana Medical History Museum, "On Behalf of 'Suffering Humanity': Drs. John Evans, Isaac Fisher, Dorothea Dix, and the Quest for Mental Health Care in Indiana, 1840-50"

Erik L. Lindseth, IUPUI, "The Jakob Schramm Personal Library: Bringing Civilization to the Indiana Frontier, Circa 1835"

Shirley Willard, Fulton County Historical Society, "The Trail of Death
Regional Historical Trail"
Respondent: Tim Crumrin, Conner Prairie

Governor's Award Winner

The Indiana Council for History Education has selected Trudy A. Nelson as the recipient of the 2003 Governor's Award for Excellence in the Teaching of History.

Ms. Nelson is a fifth-grade teacher at Wea Ridge Elementary School in Lafayette. She received her B.S. in Education from Western Illinois University and her master's degree from the University of Maine. With 21 years of classroom experience, she has taught in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maine, and Indiana.

Among the innovations that Ms. Nelson began at her school is the History Fair, an eight-week unit in which students research a topic, read historical fiction and nonfiction, create displays, and make presentations to their classmates and adults. At professional conferences, she has led workshops on using literature across the curriculum and teaching the Holocaust.

Taylor Lecturer

The 2003 Taylor Lectuer is Professor William V. Trollinger of the University of Dayton. A recipient of the Ph.D. in U.S. history from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, he joined the Dayton faculty after appointments at the University of the Ozarks and Messiah College of Pennsylvania. Currently the president of the Conference on Faith and History, he is the author or coauthor of numerous articles and several books, including God's Empire: William Bell Riley and Midwestern Fundamentalism.

The Taylor Lecture commemorates Dr. Robert M. Taylor, Jr., one of the founders of the Indiana Association of Historians and for many years its secretary. He spent most of his career on the staff of the Indiana Historical Society.

Indiana Association of Historians

Officers

2002-2003

President:	David G. Vanderstel, National Council on Public History
President-elect:	Katherine Tinsley, Manchester College
Secretary:	Ray Boomhower, Indiana Historical Society
Treasurer:	William W. Giffin, Indiana State University
Past President:	Rebecca Shoemaker, Indiana State University
Council:	Stephen Cox, Indiana Historical Society
	Marianne Wokeck, IUPUI
	Darrel Bigham, University of Southern Indiana (chair, Membership Committee)
	William B. Pickett, Rose Hulman Institute of Technology (chair, Indiana Committee for History Education)

Program Committee

Thomas D. Hamm, Earlham College, co-chair
Joanne E. Passet, Indiana University East, co-chair
David M. Anderson, University of Indianapolis
Tim Crumrin, Conner Prairie
Nancy E. Hagedorn, Indiana State University
David G. Vanderstel, National Council on Public History
Marianne Wokeck, IUPUI